Value I  Registrants hold the health and safety of each patient to be of primary importance.

Value II  Registrants cultivate a professional relationship with each patient.

Value III  Registrants honour the autonomy, values and dignity of each patient.

Value IV  Registrants respect and protect the patient’s right of confidentiality.

Value V  Registrants respect the patient’s right to receive care.

Value VI  Registrants observe the law, preserve high professional standards and uphold the dignity and honour of the profession.

Value VII  Registrants continuously improve their levels of professional knowledge and skills.

Value VIII  Registrants cooperate with colleagues and other health care professionals so that maximum benefits to patients and the public can be realized.

Value IX  Registrants contribute to the health care system and to societal health needs.

Value X  Registrants participate in the enhancement of the profession of pharmacy.