

Professional Notice

To: Pharmacy Practitioners
From: Nova Scotia College of Pharmacists
Date: April 8, 2020
Re: Messages from Public Health

Coronavirus Special Bulletin

An updated bulletin was released by the Office of the Chief Medical Officer of Health on April 8, 2020 that outlines changes to screening criteria, expanded access to testing, and office-based infection prevention and control measures.

NS Department of Health and Wellness Request for Assistance

The Nova Scotia Health Authority (NSHA) has set up open call postings to accept applications from people who are not currently employed with the NSHA, but who would be willing to work as a Casual Relief worker, to be deployed as needed at the NSHA, long term care or other publicly funded health care entities.

PHAC Request for Assistance

The Public Health Agency of Canada (PHAC) has issued a call for assistance. They are looking for people with healthcare backgrounds to help augment capacity at provincial and territorial levels for surveillance and monitoring of COVID-19 cases.