

Nova Scotia
College of Pharmacists

Temporary Suspension of Drug Administration Notification During COVID-19

A provision has been made to temporarily suspend the requirement to notify the patient's primary care provider of drug administration by injection during COVID-19.